Arbor Acres proposes to renovate and expand Forsyth care facility

RALEIGH – Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community has filed an application with the Certificate of Need Section of the N.C. Division of Health Service Regulation to renovate and expand its continuing care retirement center campus (CCRC) in Forsyth County.

A public hearing for this project will be held on Dec. 16 at 1 p.m. in Room 152 A&B of the Continuing Education Center at the Greensboro campus of Guilford Technical Community College, 3505 E. Wendover Ave.

Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community proposes a $41-million renovation and expansion of the healthcare facility at its CCRC, including the addition of nursing facility and adult care home beds, for a total 65 nursing facility beds and 102 adult care home beds upon completion of the project.

Anyone may file written comments concerning this proposal. Comments must be received by the Certificate of Need Section no later than Dec. 1 at the following address:
